though no reasons were given by Burke's friends for naming so short a distance. It is generally understood they did so because of the reputed expertness of Parker with the weapon. The distance named not being satisfactory, after conference, regular dueling pistels were agreed upon, distance twenty paces. The ground selected, in St. Bernard parish, was near Slaughter House. Major Burke and his friends arrived first, and were soon joined by Parker and his friends. Burke's second won the toss for position, and Hall was selected to give the word. Everything being in readiness the principals took their positions and at the word the weapons were

It is not the purpose of Mr. Levy, nor has he been guilty of such conduct anywhere, to insuit ladies or gentlemen. He visited New Orleans, as he will visit Memphis, to give the people a fine entertainment, and he will do that wishout fail, because he is acknowledged to be the greatest master of his instrument in the world. I have taken hold of Estival Park for the purpose of making it a delightful summer resort for the Memphis public, and I intend to get the very best attractions for that end possibly to be had.
